An Overview of Section 3

Section 3 of federal civil rights laws refers primarily to provisions that prevent discrimination in federal programs and activities, with particular emphasis on ensuring equal access and opportunity for historically marginalized groups. The Davis-Bacon Act and Related Wage Laws

While primarily focusing on wage protections, these laws also incorporate anti-discrimination provisions to ensure fair labor practices on federally funded projects.

Technology and Data Management

Advancements in data analytics facilitate more effective monitoring and enforcement, enabling agencies to identify patterns of discrimination more efficiently.
